

SMALL GIRL HACKED TO DEATH

Spirit of Men in Gray, Need of the Hour—Boeheim

War-Time Courage Will Meet Problems of Depression, Memorial Address

LAUDS U. D. C. GROUP

Senate Candidate Points to Sublime Example of South's Heroes

The good-soldier spirit will meet the problems of peace just as loyally and valiantly as ever it met the crisis on a battle-field. Major O. L. Boeheim, of El Dorado, told a great crowd gathered in Rose Hill cemetery at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Major Boeheim, speaking at the annual Memorial day service of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, took the lesson of courage exemplified by the soldiers in gray and applied it to the problems confronting their homeland in 1932.

Holds Cross of Honor

The speaker was introduced by O. A. Graves, Hope attorney, who recalled that Major Boeheim holds one of the 34 crosses of honor presented by the U. D. C. to outstanding American men and women, and the only recipient residing in Arkansas.

Major Boeheim had been invited to the Hope Memorial day service as a leading candidate for the United States senate, of noted Confederate ancestry.

He told his Hope audience Sunday: "Just as the Confederate soldiers exemplified a new kind of courage as they sought to rebuild their beloved Southland, just so must we today give the best that we have to bring about a solution of modern day problems."

Tribute to the Gray

"The courage of the gray-clad warrior transcended hysteria and temporary politics as we started into the face of devastating defeat, and founded out of the whole wreckage of war and so-called reconstruction, a new property and a new country structure. They founded a new South, not a protest against the old, but because of new conditions, new adjustments, new ideals and new aspirations, maintaining all the while, the spirit and idealism which had made the South the cultural and educational center of the United States prior to that struggle."

"They attacked their new problems with the same vigor and with the same relentless courage with which they marched to victory at Munnassas and by which they expended their gallant soldiers in Rickett's charge at Gettysburg."

Tribute to U. D. C.

"The United Daughters of the Confederacy under whose auspices this beautiful memorial service is being held, is one organization which has conserved itself to the task of preserving those ideals which carried the South through the darkest pages of its history."

"The Daughters of the Confederacy, composed as it is of that fine and pure type of womanhood which inspired the soldiers of '61, have faced this responsibility and have not only led the way in preserving the sacred memory of our Confederate dead, but they have led the way to the fulfillment of the citizen's obligation to state and nation in peace as in war."

The Memorial service was opened with a bugle call by Linton Davis, followed by the invocation from Dr. W. R. Anderson, a poem, "Washington—the Man," written by Mrs. W. O. Shipley, was read by the author, following which the speaker was introduced by Mr. Graves.

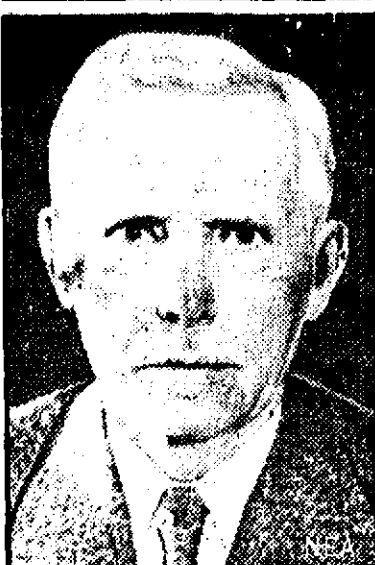

E. F. McFaddin called the roll of the dead from the Confederate, Spanish-American and World wars, during which a white rose was placed in the wreath of each Confederate and Spanish-American veteran, and a red poppy in the wreaths for the World war dead, by Misses Frances Snyder and Evelyn Bryant.

Washington Will Hold Homecoming

Tenth Annual Event Next Sunday in Hempstead County Town

WASHINGTON.—The tenth annual homecoming for former Washington citizens will be held here on Mothers Day next Sunday.

Originated in 1923 by members of the Washington Club of Texarkana and attended that year by only a few persons from Texarkana, Hope and other nearby cities, the homecoming event is now attended by former residents from all parts of Arkansas and from cities and towns in Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and other states.

The usual program will be followed this year. Church service, held every third year in the same church, will be in the Methodist church this time. The Rev. John C. Sutton of Jackson, Miss., will deliver the sermon.

After church service is over, those in attendance will be invited to the lawn of the county courthouse where the noon meal will be provided by women residents of Washington. The afternoon is usually spent in a variety of ways. Most of those present do not forget that the chief purpose of the day is to honor in general those relatives and friends buried in Washington cemeteries, and in particular, all mothers who lie there.

Insofar as the names and addresses were available from the record kept during former occasions, invitations have been sent to all those residing outside of Hempstead county, who have attended during past years. A complete list of the persons who have lived in Washington during some part of their lives is not available, and those to whom an invitation has not been extended are, along with all the others who received the request to come, also expected to attend.

Man Convicted in Attack on Mena Cop

George Reeves Given Six Months in Jail and Fine of $250

MENA, Ark.—George Reeves, first of the five Mena men indicted for attacking Night Officer Bill Harris last December, to go on trial in Folk circuit court, was found guilty by a jury Saturday. The hearing attracted much public attention, the attack upon the Mena officer having resulted in him being under medical care for two months.

The jury fixed Reeves' punishment at six months in jail and a fine of $250.

The charge against Reeves was obstructing judicial process. The state contended that Harris was attacked when he attempted to arrest Rex Vaughan, accused of being drunk, and alleged that Reeves, J. D. Burk, Ernest Harper and Jess Hall, assisted by Vaughan, took part in the assault. After Harris had been beaten, the five young men fled to Pike county, where Reeves, Harper and Burk were arrested. Vaughan and Hall later returned to Mena and surrendered. The defense of Reeves was that Vaughan was not drunk and that Harris had no right to arrest him. Defense testimony also was given to the effect that Harris struck Vaughan and cursed him and also struck at Reeves to precipitate the attack. Reeves admitted striking Harris, but claimed it was in self defense.

Texarkana Hotel Scene of Holdup

Two Unmasked Bandits Escape in Auto With $352—Suspect Arrested

TEXARKANA.—A few hours after three bold bandits had staged a $352 holdup in the lobby of the Savoy Hotel, Olive and Front streets, Miller county officers and Texarkana, Ark., police early Sunday arrested a 25-year-old man as a suspect in the robbery.

The suspect was arrested at the home of Bill Fenton, four miles south-east of the city, by Sheriff R. W. Sturgis and Police Officer W. E. Davis. He denied any connection with the holdup.

Leaving their confederate in a car outside, two of the bandits entered the hotel at about 2:30 a. m. and made their escape in the automobile after forcing H. M. Smith night clerk, to hand over $266 from the cash register, and relieving A. Moos, Shreveport oil man, of $86.

The bandit car dashed from the scene of the holdup and was last seen speeding down East Broad street after circling the block via State Line avenue.

Smith and two negro bell boys, Robert Cartwright and Theo Putter, were the only persons in the lobby of the hotel when the two bandits entered, one coming in the front door and the other through a side entrance.

The night clerk said he first noticed the two men when one of them approached him at the cigar counter and asked if he might register for a room. Answering in the affirmative, Smith turned to go back to the registration desk but was halted by a pistol in the hands of the bandit.

Smith quoted the man as saying, "Now, I don't want a room, this is a stickup."

Meanwhile, the other man had approached the two bell boys and forced them through the door of the ballroom which is directly in the rear of the clerk's office.

After forcing him to hand over the contents of the cash register, Smith said the two men then demanded to know where "the rest of the money was." At this stage of the holdup, Moos came into the lobby. He failed to notice the pistol in the hand of the bandit and walked up to the office to register.

The bandit immediately covered him and ransacked his pockets in search of a weapon. He relieved Moos of $86 and ransacked his pockets in search of he had no more. Smith and Moos were marched into the ballroom where both were threatened with death if the former did not reveal the hiding place of the rest of the hotel's funds.

Cotton Drops to New Price Level

Market Selling Off Quarter Cent During Last 7-Day Period

MEMPHIS.—(U. S. Dept. Agriculture)—The cotton market during the period April 23 to 29 declined about 3-16c to 5-16c compared with quotations April 22.

On April 29 quotations for futures contracts reached the lowest point of the season so far but those for spot cotton were about 64 points higher than those of October 5, 1931, or the lowest point of the season so far for spot cotton.

Domestic and foreign demand for spot cotton was stated as indifferent. On the other hand, holders were also indifferent sellers excepting at their asking basis which at present is higher than at any time during the present season.

Such inquiries that appeared in the market were largely centered on the medium white grades in the lengths 7-8 inch and 15-16 inch.

According to the Weather Bureau during the past week cotton planting made steady progress and has begun well to the north.

There is some complaint of slow and uncertain germination in some east Gulf districts because of dryness but in the Atlantic states the outlook is generally favorable. Chopping has begun in parts of Alabama and Georgia.

Average price middling 7-8 inch as compiled from the quotations of the ten designated markets April 29th 5.58c compared with 5.78c April 22 and 5.88c a year ago. July futures at New York closed April 29 at 5.86 and at New Orleans at 5.85.

Sales of spot cotton as reported by the ten markets were somewhat larger than the previous week. On April 1st this year the apparent supply of American cotton remaining in the United States amounted to 12,984,000 bales compared with 9,472,000 bales a year earlier, 7,076,000 on April 1, 1930 and was the largest amount ever held in the United States at this time of the year.

The decrease in the supply remaining in the United States (consumption plus exports) during the month of March was considerably larger than the decrease in any other year since 1927. The large decrease was due to the export movement as consumption was about the same as in March last year and was less than in other recent years.

Hudspeth Gives Up To Boone Sheriff

Harrison Banker Had Been Missing Since Last September

CLARKSVILLE.—A. T. Hudspeth, aged about 60, former head of a chain of banks in northwest Arkansas, and who had been missing since the system collapsed last September, arrived in Clarksville Saturday morning, after Saturday night was under bond of $2,100 on two charges of embezzlement and one of accepting deposits in an insolvent bank. He is under indictment in Boone Circuit Court.

When Hudspeth arrived here he went to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sherlin Hurley, and requested Mr. Hurley to notify Sheriff J. S. Johnson of Harrison, that he desired to surrender. The Boone county officer arrived in the afternoon and served the warrants, requiring a bond of $750 on each count. Arrangements for the bond already had been made.

Hudspeth refused to discuss his difficulties, nor would he reveal where he went when he was reported to have fled the state last September. He is in poor health, he said, and has spent much of the time since leaving Harrison in hospitals. It had been reported several weeks ago that Hudspeth had returned to the state and was at the home of friends or relatives in northwest Arkansas. His surrender was not unexpected.

Mickey Mouse to Come to Saenger

Club for Boys and Girls Will Be Opened Under Mickey's Name

Manager Elmer Hecht of the Saenger Theatre announces that a Mickey Mouse club for boys and girls is to be formed in Hope.

Mickey Mouse Clubs are a lot of fun and Manager Hecht is confident that the youngsters of the city are going to be "tickled pink," as the saying is, when they hear the details of the Saenger-Star Mickey Mouse Club plan.

Membership application blanks can be secured at the Theatre, or at "Official" Mickey Mouse Stores (you'll know them by window cards they display) now, and when these are filled out and filed, they will call for official membership cards and buttons. The Mickey Mouse Club will have its own officers and hold meetings every Saturday at the Saenger Theatre, where special programs will be presented. The first such Mickey Mouse Club matinee meeting, being scheduled for Saturday, May 7.

Meanwhile, complete details will be published in this newspaper and boys and girls who want to be chapter members should visit the Saenger Theatre, or co-operating stores and obtain the membership application blanks. These are free and self-explanatory. Membership cards and buttons will also be issued without cost to those filling out the application blanks.

Manager Hecht has no end of wonderful stunts and surprises in mind for Mickey and Minnie Mice, as members are known, and every week the Saturday matinee meetings will be one big treat after another.

The Mickey Mouse Club originated in Ocean Park, California, and is a movement which has taken hold among youngsters in all parts of the country and the Fox Dome Theatre's Mickey Mouse Club, the first one in the United States, now has an active enrolled membership of over 1,000 boys and girls and is growing constantly.

So you can imagine there's something to a Mickey Mouse Club and you'll be wise to get that application blank now!

New Roads Depend Upon Federal Aid

Blackwood Tells No. 67 Group That Issue Is With Congress

LITTLE ROCK.—Passage of the emergency federal aid bill now before Congress probably would enable Arkansas to improve the gaps on its trunk line highways and work would begin within 30 days after enactment of the measure, Dwight H. Blackwood, chairman of the state Highway Commission, told members of the Highway 67 Association Executive Committee at the Hotel Marion Friday.

Representatives were present from each county between the Arkansas river and the Missouri line to confer with Mr. Blackwood concerning the possibility of improving this link of the national transcontinental route in an effort to increase tourist travel now diverted from Arkansas.

Mr. Blackwood said that passage of the federal emergency statute would bring an additional $4,000,000 in road funds into the state and would release enough money for maintenance as well as provide the federal fund for new construction.

He said that unless the bill passes the Senate, state funds will be spent on maintenance and there will be little or none for new construction.

Officers Capture Suspected Robber

Guy Kimes, Companion of Gunman Slain in Okla., Found Wounded

VAN BUREN.—Guy Kimes, admitted companion of Frank Rogers of Elkins, the gunman slain by Deputy Sheriff Clifford Hudson at Spiro, Oklahoma, early Thursday, was captured by Oklahoma and Arkansas officers at a farm-house 25 miles southwest of Checotah, Okla., Sunday morning, and was returned here. He is a cousin of Matthew and George Kimes, notorious Oklahoma "bad men," who are in the Oklahoma penitentiary for slaying Perry Chucua, Sallisaw, Okla., officer.

Kimes was suffering from shotgun wounds in the back and right arm. Officers found him under a bed at the farm-house of J. L. Jennings of the Tiger Mountain community near Checotah. He had been the object of an intensive search. He will be questioned about the robbery of the Farmers and Merchants bank at Prairie Grove three weeks ago and for possible identification by the officials of the Prairie Grove bank. Rogers had been identified by the bank officials as one of the two gunmen who robbed the bank. Both were on fugitives from the Oklahoma penitentiary where they had been sent for robbery.

At the jail here, Kimes was given medical attention and about a dozen shotgun pellets were removed from his back and right arm. He was shot by Night Marshal Charles Tober if Spiro as he leaped from the platform of the Kansas City Southern station at Spiro following the exchange of shots in which Rogers was killed.

The search was conducted by Sheriff A. D. Maxey of Van Buren. Sheriff John B. Williams of Fort Smith, Deputy Sheriff Hudson, Deputy Sheriff F. C. Frazier of Checotah and Constable Jack Pace of Fort Smith, Pace had identified the fugitive as Kimes.

Columbus Blast Suspects Grilled

Caught in an automobile said to have been stolen in Columbus, Ohio, and in which police say they found dynamite and tools, Frank Wilson, 22, left, and Ed Wallace, 30, center, were held in Chicago for questioning. Their story led police to Paul Keltner, right, who was found in the Chicago House of Correction. He was said to have been with Wallace and Wilson in Columbus the day before the explosion that ripped a huge hole out of the side of Ohio state's new office building at the capital, with the loss of 10 lives and more than $1,000,000 damage April 13. Wallace is said to be an expert with dynamite and to have worked formerly for the contractor erecting the building. Caps and explosives in the auto, which police say the men admitted stealing, were said to be identified with those used by the contractor. Telephoto above shows trio as they awaited police questioning.

Six Die in Grade Crossing Accident

Car Is Demolished in Wisconsin by Train on Initial Run

MARSHFIELD, Wis.—(AP)—Six persons, members of farm families, near here, were killed Sunday when an automobile was demolished at a grade crossing by a crack Soo Line passenger train making its first run between Chicago and Minneapolis.

The dead: Mr. and Mrs. John Riemer, two of their children, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Riemer. Another of John Riemer's children, a daughter, was critically hurt and doctors said she probably would die.

The Riemer brothers and their families were returning home from a visit with another brother, W. C. Riemer. The mishap occurred not far from their homes at Rudolph, Wis., near here.

The train halted and the dead were taken to Spencer, Wis., and the injured girl brought to a hospital here. An inquest has been ordered.

Washington Was Tobacco Merchant

Father of His Country Important Grower at the Age of 27

Virginia, 25th Nov., 1759. Gentn.

Sometime this week I expect to get on board the Cery for your house Fifty Hogsheads Tob. of my own and Mr. Park Custis's which please to insure in the regular manner. I shall also by the same ship send you ten or 12 Hds more if I can get them on board in time, but this I believe will be impracticable if Captain Tolmer uses that despatch in loading which he now has it in his power to do. G. WASHINGTON

P.S. My goods from Captin. Yates are arrived in James River and I thank you for your diligence in sending them.

Thus wrote Washington to one of London's earliest tobacco companies. Even in his youth Washington was one of the most important tobacco growers in America. Fifty hogsheads, Tobacco Topic, published by Liggett & Meyers Tobacco Company, points out, was then a lot of tobacco for one planter to export.

In November 1759, Washington had been married to the widow Custis for eleven months, and had settled down at Mount Vernon to devote himself to agrarian pursuits for the next 15 years. Although only 27 years old he had behind him his surveying experiences, his military apprenticeship in the French and Indian wars, and many desperate encounters with the French and the Indians.

Washington smoked most of his life. That he also used snuff, along with other eminent men of his time, is indicated by his ordering on September 20th, 1759, "three pounds of the best Scotch snuff" from Robert Carey and Co., London.

From 1752, when he inherited Mount Vernon on the death of his brother, until his death, George Washington was a considerable factor in the Virginia tobacco business. The demand for Virginia tobacco in Europe was one of the trade's chief stimulants.

Piles Go Quick

Without Salves or Cutting
Itching, bleeding, protruding piles are caused by bad circulation of the blood in the affected parts. The parts become weak, flabby, almost dead. Only an internal remedy can remove the cause—that's why salves, suppositories and cutting fail. Dr. Leonard's prescription, HEM-ROID, succeeds because it removes congestion, restores circulation, heals and strengthens the diseased parts. HEM-ROID has such a wonderful record of quick, ending even piles of long standing, that Ward & Son say one bottle of HEM-ROID Tablets must end your Pile agony or money back. Adv.

Ragon Announces For Re-Election

Fifth District Representative Too Busy to Run for Senate

WASHINGTON—Declaring that responsibilities of his duties in Congress are so grave under present disturbed conditions that he could not make a state-wide race without neglecting his duties, Representative Hartsell Ragon of the Fifth district Saturday declined to enter the Fifth district Saturday contest for the Arkansas contest for the United States Senate. He announced he will seek re-election.

Mr. Ragon had intended to leave Saturday night for Little Rock for a conference with Steve Carrigan, state chairman of the Democratic victory campaign, and D. Kenneth Rose, national executive secretary of the campaign.

"I find that I will be unable to leave before the latter part of next week," he said. "The economy bill, veterans' legislation and the Muscle Shoals resolution, are scheduled for action during the week, and I feel it would be unwise for me to visit home until they are out of the way."

With Representative Cripp of Georgia off the Ways and Means Committee and other vacancies likely to occur, Mr. Ragon will be one of the ranking members. He has presided over the committee during many recent sessions.

Mr. Ragon's statement follows: "I will make the race for re-nomination to Congress. I find the responsibilities of this session of Congress so great that it would require a neglect of duty upon my part to engage in a statewide campaign. I do not see how I could break away from the proceedings of Congress at this time without doing not only an injustice to my district, but to the state. To make any kind of a campaign for a state office would require upon my part an activity every day from now until the primary."

"With conditions as they are throughout the country and situated as I am in Congress, I believe my work would be vastly more effective for the people of my district and state where I am now than as a member of the Senate. Again, the disturbed conditions of finances at the present, with its uncertainties in the future, coupled with the great expense of a statewide campaign, are factors which must be taken into consideration by one having no more means than I have.

"I deeply appreciate the hundreds of letters which I have received from all sections of the state encouraging my entrance into the race for the Senate. I shall ever feel grateful for the aid and assistance offered by these friends, particularly in my congressional district."

'Make More Taxpayers,' Says Australian Official

CANBERRA.—(AP)—Asserting there are not enough taxpayers in Australia, C. J. Cerruty, federal auditor general, recommends that the government create some.

He argues that since only 265,000 of the country's 3,500,000 voters pay income taxes, the assessment should be levied on all who earn more than $10 weekly.

This, he says, would make them realize the responsibilities of citizenship since many now vote carelessly because it costs them nothing to do so.
